Anti-Bribery And Corruption Management System

MESSAGE FROM THE CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

SSF Home Group Bhd. (“SSF” or the “Group”) recognizes the importance in establishing and upholding good corporate governance and is committed to conducting its business in accordance with the highest ethical standards in full compliance with all applicable laws, regulations and standards in all locations and jurisdictions in which the Company operates.

SSF adopts a “zero-tolerance” approach towards any form of bribery and corruption in its operations. The Company strictly forbids any acts of bribery and corruption regardless of its form as it has an adverse effect to the communities and businesses. Rampant bribery and corruption will further curtail a free and fair competition as well as tainting the culture of accountability of the Company in terms of reputation and governance.

In response to the development of the laws and regulations in relation to global fight against corruption, the Parliament of Malaysia passed the Malaysian Anti-Corruption Commission (Amendment) Act 2018 which introduced Section 17A of the Malaysian Anti-Corruption Commission Act 2009 (“MACCA”), which imposes liability on a commercial organisation for corruption committed by persons associated with the commercial organisation. Section 17A(5) of MACCA also introduces the Guidelines on Adequate Procedures (“Ministerial Guidelines”) which include, amongst others, the five guiding principles –

T	TOP LEVEL COMMITMENT to ensure that SSF practices the highest level of integrity and ethics.
R	RISK ASSESSMENT to be carried out in SSF to detect any possible corruption risks involving its business activities and persons associated to the Company.
U	UNDERTAKING CONTROL MEASURES in preventing and combatting all forms of bribery and corruption.
S	SYSTEMATIC REVIEW, MONITORING AND ENFORCEMENT towards internal and external entities to ensure robust compliance to anti-corruption laws and regulations.
T	TRAINING AND COMMUNICATION to all relevant stakeholders on the Company’s commitment in its “zero-tolerance” approach to corruption.

Yours sincerely,

Mr. Wong Choong Loong
[Chief Executive Officer]

Anti-Bribery And Corruption Management System

The term “SSF”, the “Group”, “we”, “us” or “our” when used in this Policy shall refer to SSF Home Group Berhad. and its subsidiaries and the term “you” or “your” shall refer to each of our Employees or Business Partners individually and in the case of Business Partners, including any entity which is controlled by our Business Partners, unless the context indicates otherwise.

A. Scope & Application

This Anti-Bribery and Corruption Policy (this “Policy”) sets out SSF’s approach in combatting bribery and corruption as well as the responsibilities of all parties (whether internal or external) to comply with laws and regulations in relation to bribery and corruption. This Policy aims to provide guidance on how to recognize and deal with bribery and corruption issues to ensure the Company’s businesses are conducted in honest, ethical and transparent manner.

SSF is committed to conducting its business in the utmost ethical manner and in compliance with all laws and regulations in jurisdictions it operates. These laws include but not limited to the Malaysian Penal Code, the Malaysian Anti-Corruption Commission Act 2009 and the Malaysian Companies Act 2016. These laws prohibit acts of bribery and corruption, and requires companies to establish and maintain adequate procedures to prevent bribery and corruption.

This Policy was developed with guidance from the Ministerial Guidelines and is applicable to all Employees and Business Associates. Any breach of this Policy or applicable local law could results in disciplinary action being taken and ultimately could result in dismissal for Employees and termination of contractual relation for Business Associates. Further legal action may be taken in the event the Company’s interest has been harmed as a result of non-compliance and / or misconduct.

B. MACC Act 2009

Under the MACC Act 2009, giving and accepting any bribes constitutes as acts of corruption and are criminal offences resulting in legal consequences including a hefty fine and/or imprisonment of up to 20 years. A commercial organization, like SSF, commits an offence if an associated person corruptly gives any gratification with intent to obtain or retain business or an advantage in the conduct of business, for the commercial organization. “Gratification” in this context, means –

- (a) money, donation, gift, loan, fee, reward, valuable security, property or interest in property being property of any description whether movable or immovable, financial benefit, or any other similar advantage;
- (b) any office, dignity, employment, contract of employment or services, and agreement to give employment or render services in any capacity;

- (c) any payment, release, discharge or liquidation of any loan, obligation or other liability;
- (d) any valuable consideration of any kind, any discount, commission, rebate, bonus, deduction or percentage;
- (e) any forbearance to demand any money or money's worth or valuable thing;
- (f) any other service or favour of any description, including protection from any penalty or disability incurred or apprehended or from any action or proceedings of a disciplinary, civil, or criminal in nature; and
- (g) any offer, undertaking or promise, whether conditional or unconditional, of any gratification within the meaning of any of the preceding paragraphs (a) to (f).

C. Corruption Risk Assessment

A corruption risk assessment forms the basis of SSF's anti-corruption efforts. As such, the Company shall conduct internal and external corruption risk assessments annually and when there is a change in law or circumstance of the business. The risk assessment should be conducted by taking into account the following criteria -

- Assessment of existing risk by updating its rating of probability and impact;
- Identify of new risk, if any, and rating of its probability and impact;
- Assessment / update of control and management action plan relating to each risk; and
- Elimination of risk that is no longer relevant.

This risk assessment should be used to establish appropriate processes, systems and controls approved by the top-level management to mitigate the specific corruption risks the business is exposed to.

For this purpose, the Company shall conduct a comprehensive risk assessment, with intermittent assessments conducted when necessary. The assessment may include the following:

- (a) opportunities for corruption and fraud activities resulting from weaknesses in the Company's governance framework and internal systems/ procedures;
- (b) financial transactions that may disguise corrupt payments;
- (c) business activities in countries or sectors that pose a higher corruption risk;
- (d) non-compliance of external parties acting on behalf of the Company regarding legal and regulatory requirements related to anti-corruption. Note that, given the wide definition of an associated person, a commercial organization can be liable for the acts of such third parties; and
- (e) relationships with third parties in its supply chain (e.g. agents, vendors, contractors, and suppliers) which are likely to expose the commercial organization to corruption.

SSF HOME GROUP BERHAD
(Registration No. 201501016707 (1142041-X))
(Incorporated in Malaysia)

Anti-Bribery And Corruption Management System

The risk assessment for corruption is documented in SSF's Risk Management Report.

D. Conflict of Interest

"Conflict of interest" refers to circumstances whereby there is a personal interest that can be considered to have potential interference with objectivity in performing duties or exercising judgement on behalf of SSF. All Employees and Business Associates must avoid situations in which their personal interest would conflict with their duties and responsibilities. All Employees and Business Associates must not use their position, official working hours, SSF's resources and assets or information available to them for personal gain or to the Company's disadvantage. A conflict of interest can be intentional, perceived or potential. Conflict of interest is an act that leads to partial decision making which constitute the element of a corrupt conduct.

Conflict of interest may arise directly or indirectly through an intermediary, such as third party, friends or family. As such, the Company requires all employees to disclose / declare any actual or potential conflict of interest such as family relation, financial relation or other connection directly or indirectly related to their line of work on a regular basis.

All declaration of conflicts of interests shall be made in accordance to the Code of Conduct and Ethics.

E. Gifts, Entertainment and Hospitality

Gifts, entertainment and hospitality given and received as a reward, inducement or encouragement for any other advantage or inappropriate or dishonest conduct are strictly prohibited. If giving or receiving gifts, entertainment or hospitality is intended to influence normal decision making, the giver retains special advantage, this constitutes corruption. Employees must not directly or indirectly solicit or accept gifts, entertainment and hospitality in any forms that is excessive, inappropriate, illegal or given in response to, in anticipation of, or to influence a business decision.

Employees must exercise proper care and good judgement when providing or accepting gifts, entertainment and hospitality to or from external parties. If Employees unsure of how to consider the intention behind any gifts, entertainment and hospitality, they must always consult their immediate superiors to obtain advice and approval before proceeding.

"Corporate Gift" are gifts normally bears the company's name and/or logo and are of nominal / appropriate value which may include diaries, table calendars, pens, notepads and plaques.

In the event the gifts ought to be given is doubtful, the gift must be refused.

All Employees and Business Associates must not directly or indirectly solicit gifts from any party for their personal gain or for or on behalf of SSF. Business Associates must not give gifts to our Employees.

All Employees must record any gift received, irrespective of value, in the Gift Register within five (5) working days of receipt. In no circumstances may our Employees (or anyone on their behalf) accept gift in the form of cash (except for in accordance to tradition and customs in modest amount during the relevant festive season) or cash equivalent from any party.

Gift Register

SSF shall maintain a Gift Register to record all gift received and given by/to Employees to /from any parties. The Head of Department / Company shall decide to approve the acceptance or require it to be returned. The gifts shall be distributed equally and fairly to all Employees but not only benefit certain employee. For instance, SSF received hampers from suppliers as an act of appreciation in conjunction of a festivity, a lucky draw should be conducted to distribute the hampers to all Employees in a reasonably just and fair manner.

Providing Entertainment & Hospitality

In a business environment, it is common to provide entertainment & corporate hospitality to foster business relationships. Nevertheless, entertainment & corporate hospitality provided shall be modest under appropriate and formal situations. Only authorized Employees may offer modest entertainment & corporate hospitality within their scope of work as part of business networking as well as a measure of goodwill towards the recipients. The entertainment & corporate hospitality provided must be always reasonable and legal. Any provision of entertainment & corporate hospitality to external parties, such as Public Officials shall be exercised with additional and proper care as well as judgement.

All Employees must not directly or indirectly provide or offer to provide entertainment & corporate hospitality with a view to cause undue influence or in exchange for favours or advantages. Such acts are considered corruption.

Accepting Entertainment & Corporate Hospitality

Acceptance of entertainment & corporate hospitality may be perceived as inducements or corruption at times if the entertainment & corporate hospitality received are not managed in utmost care and diligence. It is essential for Employees to exercise proper care and good judgement before accepting entertainment & corporate hospitality offered or provided by Business Associates or other parties. This is to preserve SSF's reputation and avoid allegations of impropriety or undue influence and corruption.

All Employees must conduct themselves with the highest integrity in relation to accepting entertainment & corporate hospitality from any party. All Employees or any of their family members and friends must not accept entertainment & corporate hospitality in exchange for the act of doing or not doing any of their job function or activity in proper manner.

F. Donations, Sponsorship and Charitable / Educational Contributions

Employees are strictly prohibited from receiving or giving donations and sponsorships to obtain a business or advantage of any kind or unduly influence the outcome of business decision. SSF will only provide charitable or educational donations and public welfare sponsorship if they are ethical and legal under applicable laws. Any donations, sponsorships and charitable contributions must be approved by the Directors and it must be done in a transparent manner for social and moral responsibility.

G. Prohibition of Political Contribution and/or Donation

Employees are strictly prohibit to provide any form of political donation or support to political parties, individual politicians or towards political campaigns or initiatives for or on behalf of SSF particularly where it is to obtain any business or advantage. Any political contribution should be brought to the attention of the Directors immediately and requires prior approval from Directors. Any payment must be properly recorded and accounted with supporting documents.

Employees may participate independently in political activities in their personal capacity with their own money and time. However, their political views and actions are personal and not reflective or representative of SSF. All Employees shall not directly or indirectly use such participation, alliances or relations in political activities as means to obtain or provide any business and/or business advantages for or on behalf of SSF. SSF will not reimburse any personal political contributions.

H. Facilitation Payments

SSF prohibits the use of Facilitation Payments in its business dealings. Employees must never directly or indirectly pay, offer, solicit or receive bribes of any forms including facilitation payments whether inside or outside of Malaysia. Facilitation payment is an unofficial payment or other provision made personally to an individual intended to secure or expedite the performance of a routine or administrative duty or function. Although Facilitation Payment may be allowed in other jurisdictions, Facilitation Payment is illegal in Malaysia and is considered as an act of corruption.

It is usually small bribe payments (usually paid to low-level officials) made directly or indirectly to secure or speed up performance of a routine or to avoid bureaucratic delays and red tapes that may slow down certain business dealings. These payments are intended to influence the timing of public officials' action such as speed up the clearing goods through customs, processing visas and scheduling inspections.

I. Dealing with Governments and Public Officials

Any improper or secret payments or transfer of Gratification (including gifts, entertainment, corporate hospitality and facilitation payments), whether directly or indirectly, to a Public Official or person associated with Public Officials to persuade that official or person to help the company to obtain undue or illegal benefits is strictly prohibited.

Besides, the advantage to government and public official is strictly prohibited even if:-

- (a) the benefits not to the party who granted the advantage but for another party. For example, offer benefits such as gifts, travel expenses and scholarship to a family member of a government officer to influence a decision;
- (b) the benefits transfer through intermediaries or a third party with the knowledge that all or part of the payment will contribute directly or indirectly as an improper, secret or facilitation payment to a government officer;
- (c) the business is not with the government and public official;
- (d) the advantage granted does not result in the expected award of business or service;
- (e) the government or public officials initially suggested or solicited the advantage.

Employees must comply with all applicable laws, conduct themselves with integrity and apply the highest ethical standards whenever they deal or otherwise engage with government, government agencies, regulatory bodies, statutory bodies (whether local or foreign) and any of its officials.

- (c) comply with rules and regulations relating to fighting corruption;
- (d) fighting any form of corrupt practice; and *
- (e) supporting corruption prevention initiatives by the Malaysian Government, MACC and other authorities within the country jurisdiction we operate.

to the best of our knowledge (collectively referred to as the “Provisions”).

- B. We shall not, through any of our employees, representatives, agents or any persons associated to us or SSF, commit any corruption offence or breach any of the Provisions. Our business practices and activities shall not encourage any corruption elements within its operations and transactions.
- C. We have not been convicted nor are we the subject to any investigation, inquiry or enforcement proceedings by the relevant authorities of any actual or suspected breach to the Provisions and will report any actual or suspected breach to the Provisions as soon as reasonably practicable and to the extent permitted by law, to SSF.

2. AGREES THAT:

- a. In the event that we are in breach of any of the above sections or the Provisions, SSF may immediately revoke the contract award or terminate the contract for the business transactions without any liability whatsoever on the part of SSF to the Business Associates. This is without prejudice to any other rights or remedies that SSF may have or any other appropriate action which SSF may seek under the terms of the applicable tender or contract or applicable laws and regulations.
- b. In the event that we are in breach of any of the above sections or the Provisions, we may seek to indemnify SSF of any form of damages and/or liabilities, whether criminal or civil, if any legal action was brought against SSF in relation to the breach.
- c. Should any person attempt to solicit any bribe or advantage (whether financial or otherwise) from the Business Associates or any other person connected to the Business Associates either as an inducement or incentive to be selected or as a reward, gift, or bonus for being selected in the business transactions with SSF or where the Business Associates has reasonable grounds to suspect any breach of the obligations in this Business Associate Letter of Declaration, the COCBE, the ABAC Policy or any applicable laws, the Business Associate will report such act to SSF as soon as reasonably practicable.
